The Beginnings and History of Shavuot

- Shavuot = Hebrew for “weeks”

Leviticus 23

- 15 'And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed.
- 16 'Count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD.
- 17 'You shall bring from your dwellings two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven. They are the firstfruits to the LORD.
- 18 'And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year, without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be as a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.
- 19 'Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of a peace offering.
- 20 'The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.
- 21 'And you shall proclaim on the same day that it is a holy convocation to you. You shall do no customary work on it. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.
- 22 'When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleaning from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God.'"

Deuteronomy 16

- 1 "Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.
- 2 "Therefore you shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock and the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to put His name.
- 3 "You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, that is, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), that you may remember the day in which you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.
- 8 "Six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a sacred assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it.
- 9 "You shall count seven weeks for yourself; begin to count the seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the grain.

- 10 "Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you.
- 11 "You shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within your gates, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are among you, at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide.
- 12 "And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.

The festival which celebrates the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai
Also the occasion when the first fruits were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate the new crop

Much debate concerning the date

- Sivan 6 - start counting on the day after the first high Sabbath after Passover
- Monday - count fifty days from the first regular Sabbath after Passover, but don't include the first day
- Sunday - count fifty days from the first regular Sabbath after Passover, including the first day

Our belief that Pentecost is always on a Sunday is strongly, but not solely, based on the description of the Jubilee Year – with the belief that God's holy days follow a consistent pattern.

Leviticus 25:

- 8 'And you shall count seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years.
- 9 'Then you shall cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement you shall make the trumpet to sound throughout all your land.
- 10 'And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.
- 11 'That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you; in it you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of its own accord, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine.
- 12 'For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat its produce from the field.
- 13 'In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession.

- Elimelech moved his family to Moab
- He died leaving his wife, Naomi, and two sons alone in a foreign land
- One of the sons married a Moabite named Ruth
- When Naomi returned home after both sons had died, Ruth chose to go with her
 - Ruth 1:16 - For wherever you go, I will go; And wherever you lodge, I will lodge; Your people shall be my people, And your God, my God.
 - 17 Where you die, I will die, And there will I be buried. The LORD do so to me, and more also, If anything but death parts you and me.
- Boaz, a relative of Elimelech, became enamored of Ruth
- Naomi had to sell Elimelech's property in order to survive
- Boaz bought the land, redeemed Naomi and Ruth, then took Ruth as his wife
- Boaz's willingness to pay the complete price for the redemption foreshadowed Christ's full payment for our salvation
 - Boaz and Ruth had a son – Obed
 - Obed was the father of Jesse – the father of David

Date that King David was born and died

Date tied to Passover:

- On Passover, the Israelites were granted their physical freedom
 - They were still “enslaved” to their passions
 - On Shavuot, they received the Torah – the tools to master their passions and drives
 - On Pentecost, the Christians received the Holy Spirit – the tool to master our passions and desires

The Beginnings and History of the Christian Church

John 14

- 25 "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you.
- 26 "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you.
- 27 "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

John 16

- 1 "These things I have spoken to you, that you should not be made to stumble.
- 2 "They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service.
- 3 "And these things they will do to you because they have not known the Father nor Me.
- 4 "But these things I have told you, that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I did not say to you at the - beginning, because I was with you.

- 5 "But now I go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?'
 - 6 "But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart.
 - 7 "Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you.
 - 8 "And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
 - 9 "of sin, because they do not believe in Me;
 - 10 "of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more;
 - 11 "of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.
 - 12 "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.
 - 13 "However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.
 - 14 "He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you.
 - 15 "All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

Luke 24

- 36 Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you."
- 37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a spirit.
- 38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts?"
- 39 "Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."
- 40 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.
- 41 But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, "Have you any food here?"
- 42 So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.
- 43 And He took it and ate in their presence.
- 44 Then He said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me."
- 45 And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.
- 46 Then He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day,
- 47 "and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
- 48 "And you are witnesses of these things.

- 49 "Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high."

Acts 2

- 1 When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
- 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.
- 3 Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them.
- 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
- 5 And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.
- 6 And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language.
- 7 Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans?"
- 8 "And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born?"
- 9 "Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
- 10 "Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,
- 11 "Cretans and Arabs--we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God."
- 12 So they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?"
- 13 Others mocking said, "They are full of new wine."
- 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and heed my words.
- 15 "For these are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day.
- 16 "But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:
- 17 'And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh; Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, Your young men shall see visions, Your old men shall dream dreams.
- 18 And on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days; And they shall prophesy.
- 19 I will show wonders in heaven above And signs in the earth beneath: Blood and fire and vapor of smoke.
- 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.

- 21 And it shall come to pass That whoever calls on the name of the LORD Shall be saved.'
- 22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know--
- 23 "Him, being delivered by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by lawless hands, have crucified, and put to death;
- 24 "whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it.
- 25 "For David says concerning Him: 'I foresaw the LORD always before my face, For He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken.
- 26 Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad; Moreover my flesh also will rest in hope.
- 27 For You will not leave my soul in Hades, Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.
- 28 You have made known to me the ways of life; You will make me full of joy in Your presence.'
- 29 "Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
- 30 "Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,
- 31 "he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.
- 32 "This Jesus God has raised up, of which we are all witnesses.
- 33 "Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He poured out this which you now see and hear.
- 34 "For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself: 'The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand,
- 35 Till I make Your enemies Your footstool.'"
- 36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."
- 37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?"
- 38 Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- 39 "For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."
- 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation."
- 41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized; and that day about
